NEW IN 2020

SWA’s Equal Business Opportunity team looks forward to offering more interactive training, networking and informational sessions in 2020. Next up: Transformational Tuesday.

EBO is offering training for its vendors and the business community to equip participants with essential tools for business development. Sessions will reinforce the necessary skills to develop new business opportunities and to enhance existing business.

The simple, interactive training will build confidence, effectiveness and efficiency. Topics will include “How to Become an Effective Leader;” “How to Win Procurement Contracts;” and “How to Build a Winning Team.” Transformational Tuesday will be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, beginning on January 28, 2020, from 8-9 am. (networking and continental breakfast 7:30-8:00am) at the SWA Administration Building Auditorium, 7501 N. Jog Road, West Palm Beach, FL 33412.

For more details, call Hattie Asberry at 561-640-4000, ext. 4538; email: hasberry@swa.org, or RSVP: at SWA.gob2g.com, and click the “Events” tab.
DID YOU KNOW...
SWA can make your certification do more?

Vendor registration is easy and only takes a few minutes. SWA is not a certifying agency, but does accept certifications from partner agencies: The School District of Palm Beach County, City of West Palm Beach, Palm Beach County and South Florida Water Management District. Certification will give your company preference with some contract opportunities, but all vendors are required to register to do business with SWA.

CHECK OUT...
SWA’s opportunities for your company

The Solid Waste Authority needs small business enterprises, like yours, to manage the needs of Palm Beach County. From painting to automotive parts, the SWA relies on qualified, experienced vendors to make sure residents receive professional services. Find out what contract opportunities are available to your business by visiting https://swa.org/Bids.aspx.